1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

The application has been amended as follows:

Cancel claims 2-9 and 11-12.

These withdrawn claims are cancelled since they do not share the same novelty feature as that of the allowed claims 1, 10, 15 and 16.

REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

In the response filed March 13, 2008, applicants correctly point out that, in general, as the melting temperature (Tm) of an propylene-butene copolymer decreases, the crystallization rate decreases sharply and such is observed in propylene-butene copolymer prepared by using a conventional metallocene catalyst; in contrast, the propylene-butene copolymer of instant claims possesses the characteristic of an extremely high crystallization rate in the low-melting region of 40-66.5°C. While Kawai (EP 1 138 687 A1) discloses propylene-butene copolymers with Tm in the range of 73-108°C prepared from processes with metallocene catalysts substantially identical to those of the instant claims, Kawai is silent about the crystallization rates of those copolymers. Therefore, the characteristic of an extremely high crystallization rates in the low-melting region of 40-66.5°C of the propylene-butene copolymers of the instant claims is critical and unexpected in view of Kawai and the instant claims are deemed to be novel.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Caixia Lu whose telephone number is (571) 272-1106. The examiner can normally be reached on 9:00 a.m. to 5:30 p.m..
